SCHOOL SONG

BY CHERYL NOLAN

There's a country called Australia,
And within that country fair
There's a place that I love dearly,
Far away from city care.
And they call the hamlet Kingstown,
Such a wondrous place to be.
For my friends are there, both old and new,
There is love and life and laughter too,
And it's you for me and me for you,
Yes Kingstown is our school.

Not a hallowed hall of learning,
Not an ivy covered school.
Just a modest timber building
By a tiny goldfish pool
But it's there that I go daily
And it's there I long to be.
There is love and life and laughter too,
And I know whatever that I do,
Yes Kingstown is our school.

And whene'er I leave Australia
And perhaps I will some day.
There's a place I will remember
Though I'm many miles away.
It's a place that they call Kingstown
Where I spent my childhood free.
And my friends were there, both old and new,
There was love and life and laughter too,
And I know forever that it's true,
Yes Kingstown is our school.
